MONDAY, 12 DECEMBER 2016

University of Salerno, Conference Room ‘Nicola Cilento’

10:00-10:30 Welcome Addresses

Aurelio Tommasetti, Rector of the University of Salerno
Sergio Perongini, Director of the Department of Legal Sciences
Mario Capunzo, Director of the Department of Medicine and Surgery “Scuola Medica Salernitana”

10:30-10:45 Presentation of the Jean Monnet Chair in European Health, Environmental and Food Safety Law

Stefania Negri, University of Salerno

10:45-11:00 Introduction to the Conference

Henriette Roscam Abbing, European Association of Health Law

11:00-12:00 Session I: Global Health Security

International Legal Aspects of Global Health Security after Ebola
Gian Luca Burci, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva

The Contribution of International Organizations to Global Health Security: So Many Hazards but only One Health
Andraz Zidar, University of Bologna

12:00-13.00 Session II: Public Health and the Environment

The Human Rights and Environmental Dimensions of Access to Water and Sanitation
Attila Tanzi, University of Bologna

The Biodiversity Legal Regime and Human Health
Riccardo Pavoni, University of Siena

Lunch

15:00-16.00 Session III: Public Health and Food

Unhealthy Food and non-Communicable Diseases: A Human Rights Approach
Brigit Toebes, University of Groningen

Foodborne Infectious Diseases: Achievements and Challenges
Pia Acconci, University of Teramo

TUESDAY, 13 DECEMBER 2016

Grand Hotel Salerno, Conference Room

10:00 Kick-off Meetings and Joint Workshop
ESIL-SEDI Interest Group on International Health Law
SIDI-ISIL Interest Group on International and EU Health Law